WOOL REMAINS ON THE FREE LIST OF THE MILLS TARIFF BILL.

The vote on the question in the House was 102 yeas and 100 nays. The vote against the measure of relief from internal revenue taxes was 102 yeas and 100 nays. The vote on the bill was 102 yeas and 100 nays.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The internal revenue clause of the tariff bill was unexpectedly passed this afternoon. The Hon. George S. Wise of Virginia offered an amendment to repeal the entire tobacco tax. Mr. Nichols of North Carolina added an amendment abolishing all prohibitions on visiting the law providing for a partial repeal of the entire statute. Mr. Coville of North Carolina offered a more comprehensive substitute for this, which was ruled out of order by the Chairman. Mr. Johnston of North Carolina offered an amendment providing for the repeal of the tax on all distilled spirits made from grain or fruit. This was defeated by a vote of 102 yeas and 100 nays.

The entire North Carolina delegation, Wise of Virginia, Candler of Georgia, and Neal of Tennessee, voted for the amendments. This is the first notable break of the Democrats from the Mills bill. BROKER JOHNSON'S COLLAPSE.

SUDDENLY OVERTAKEN BY AN ATTACK OF NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

The well-known Room Trader Drops All Business Concerns by the Command of His Doctor, and Will Leave the City. Reports were circulated yesterday that Charles A. Johnson, one of the most daring traders ever on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, had "lost his head," in the parlance of the street, and would never be seen on the Stock Exchange again. His business connections are said to have sold 5,000 shares of St. Paul and large blocks of other stocks during the day, causing a short decline in prices. Mr. Johnson has not been on the street since Friday, when the first symptoms of his disease are said to have appeared, and his friends say that he is now under the care of Dr. Loomis.
